

Alter of the sun god,
We melt before your flames.
Children of darkness
Bound in human chains
Hellfire kindles the hatred in our hearts
All love has frozen from you, we are torn apart

To the sun we are blind
As we watch our world die
From the ashes of demise
Our burning phoenix shall arise

Soldiers of fortune fighting unto death
Condemned in armour sold for their last breath
Upright citizens to decadence enslaved
Peak of pleasure waiting in your graves

To the sun we are blind
As we watch our world die
From the ashes of demise
Our burning phoenix shall arise

As our dreams turn into burning ash
We crystallise in flames, then fly

To the sun we are blind
As we watch our world die
From the ashes of demise
Our burning phoenix shall arise

Corporate fascists feast upon corpse of man
Psycho assassins from the holy land
Fiery destruction ? our salvation found.
