

Goodbye

Catherine Wheel

Someone said it's easy
And as I sit here with my cup
Staring at it as if I'm some crazy poet
When I'm not (I'm just a rock n' roll joe)

(With tales of woe) and tears and fears
It's only love that stops you from walking out the door
Tears fly somewhere close to remorse
And sometimes its easy

To all my friends I love
I still don't find it easy
To all my friends I love
Goodbye

Goodbye
Goodbye
I've arrived
Sally likes it sideways

Sally, oh, sally don't ever change
And please don't think me scary
Because I'm not, I'm just a rock n' roll joe
With tales of woe and tears and fears

Its only love that stops you from walking out the door
And tears fly somewhere
Close to remorse
But sometimes it's easy

To all my friends I love
Now I find this easy
To all my friends I love, I love, I love
Goodbye

Goodbye
Goodbye
I finally arrived
And somewhere close to here

Goodbye, goodbye
