

Love Tips Up

Catherine Wheel

Don't feel sad don't feel blue
It's supposed to be
All I feel comes back off you
And I'm so happy

'cause I feel I'm at 45 degrees
That's when love tips up for me
And keep it understood the elevations good
And love tips up for me

Please let me kiss your peculiar lips
For some sympathy
Though I've always maintained
That you've always been stranger than me
Is that the way it's meant to be?

I'm at 45 degrees
And that's when love tips up for me
So keep it understood the elevations good
And love tips up for me
Yeah don't it make you feel
Yeah don't it make you feel
Yeah don't it make you feel
High

'cause I feel I'm at 45 degrees
That's when love tips up for me
When all of this is done it's dizzy I've become
And love tips up for me
Yeah for me
