

Whats your name, Whats your name son..say whats your real name?

What have i become? im so in love with myself again

What have i become? im so in love with myself again

All this time i never knew that what you meant was what you said. Oh no, What's that..100th time, the 100th time

Whats your name son?

whats your real name?

whats your name son?

whats your real name?

I'm so in love again

what have i become? im so in love with myself again

What have i become? im so in love with myself again

i dream of days when i can smile never doubting not a day when what you want is nothing more than what you've got.

i cant stand beside you while you to inside

what have i become, im so in love
