

Wipe The Tears From Your Eyes

Caught In The Act

Never ever seen you like this before
I know you must have loved him
A little too much girl
All the time he's on your mind
Taking control
You think he was your life line
You've got to let him go
So wipe the tears from your eyes
'Cause you that you'll survive
Wipe the tears from your eyes
And think of the good times
Baby you will survive
It's hard but you got to try
To wipe the tears from your eyes
'cause you know you will survive
Think of the good times
And how they made you cry
Crying for happiness
That you no longer find
It's hard I know, but you must try
To get him out of your mind
You're living life way too down
Maybe you'll find
He tells you love's not over yet
But the bad times you can't forget
Girl don't you know
You will survive
Start learning to live
And learning to live again
Ooh wipe them away
So all you got to do is wipe away
The tears from your eyes
