

Disappear

Cavo

Can you tell me where to go, it's killing me and no one knows,
Inside with all this mind, we waste the sunlight waiting for the night

They don't wanna break me down; they don't wanna break away from you

Everything's wrong now, everyone's gone now,

I can't keep lying to myself

Cuz everything's clear now they disappear now

Cuz they don't wanna stay with you

Can you tell me where to go it's killing me and no one knows,
Inside with all this mind, you waste the sunlight waiting for the night

They don't wanna break me down; they don't wanna break away from you

Everything's wrong now, everyone's gone now,

I can't keep lying to myself

Cuz everything's clear now, they disappear now

Cuz they don't wanna stay,

I shouldn't be waiting for this life

Maybe another dream won't die

They can't be the first and be the last to break away

They don't wanna break me down; they don't wanna break away from you

Everything's wrong now, everyone's gone now,

I can't keep lying to myself

Cuz everything's clear now they disappear now

Cuz they don't want to stay with you

Everything's wrong now, everyone's gone now,

I can't keep lying to myself

Cuz everything's clear, now they disappear now

Cuz they don't want to stay with you.
