

Give It Away

Cavo

I'm the vein that you opened
A fire in the night
A flame that you can't burn out
I remember you said
You're the voice in my head

Now the feeling is gone from your eyes
So far away
Don't let it kill you from the inside
Breathe it in, Breathe it out
Let it all fall down
Let it go
Give it away
You're the last one to blame
You're the first one to lie
The words that you can't drown out
I remember the day
When the moment was changed

And the vanity is gone from your eyes
Far away
Don't let it kill you from the inside
One last time
One last kill
No more lies
Say you will
Burn it up, burn it out
Watch it all fall down
Let it go
Give it away
