

War Within

Cavo

A million to one
A father a son
Waste of life
With all these years gone by
I still feel the same
I'm trying to change
You left this like
A thief in the night
Run out of ways
And changes to make this right
And I don't need the same
And I don't blame you
I don't really wanna change your mind
Cause it's all run out
The hardest way to start is over
Medicate till I feel sober
Life's like war within
The silent lies that pull me under
Tell myself I don't belong here
Life's like war within
The edge of the knife
The fear on the rise
So many lost
What too many gave away
It wasn't mine to take
Somebody failed you
Feel alive again
Breathing out the sin
Miles away they're calling out
And I'm alone again
