

It's A Lovin Thing

CB Milton

You're silent, close these eyes
Just think of what you say
It's OK when he sees her face
When words just slip away
In other days, in other times
He'd love and walk on by
But that was then, and this is now
So happy he could cry

It's a lovin thing
It will teach you life
Teaching every way
It's a lovin thing
You can bet your life
It happens everyday
Hey everyday

Oh oh oh

Two girls in a lonely town
Wonder what's in store
Wishing dreams of running around
But one don't run no more
In other days, with other boys
She'd love and walk on by
But where is one she'll never left
She knows that she will try

Call me, I'll be waiting
Can you hear me, I'm facing changes
Call me, if you're ready
I'm waiting, I'm facing changes now

Uuuh yeah, it happens every day
Oh oh oh
