

Secret

CB Milton

Do you see her
She is here, it's your friend
Wants to be by your side
When you feel so bad

Cause he told you
That he's gonna leave all behind
All the love you had

Makes you feel so sad
How it hurts
But now she's here to kiss you

As long as she keeps her little secret
As long as she plays a tricky game
As long as you feel her inner distance
She will never ease your pain

Why do you believe in
What she tells you
As long as she fills you up with lies
You should fly, leave it all behind you

Do you see her
Do you see in her eyes
Something's wrong, maybe gone
Cause she came to play

Tellin' you, he'll come back
Doin' all she can do
Just to make him stay

He is her's today
And you realize
Cause she is here to kiss you
