

Robin Williams

CeeLo Green

Oh what a night, oh what a night, tears in my eyes, staring up at the sky in disbelief

"I've got a voice in my head, voice in my head"; that's what it said, all we really need is some comic relief

But I'm afraid of not being able to laugh anymore (Oh)
What's life going to become once we don't have anymore heroes?

We don't know what the next man's going through, wish I could s ay it in a plainer way

I said we don't know, life reminds me of Robin Williams, we've got to laugh the pain away

We don't know what the next man's going through, wish I could s ay it in a plainer way

I said we don't know, life reminds me of Robin Williams, we've
got to laugh the pain away

Laugh the pain away

John Belushi knew you and me better than we knew ourselves and we all listen to Richard Pryor (Ya)

I think don't make Philip Seymour Hoffman often, now he's one o f the things we lost in the fire (Lord, yes)

But I'm afraid of not being able to laugh anymore (Oh)
What's life going to become once we don't have anymore heroes?

We don't know what the next man's going through, wish I could s ay it in a plainer way

I said we don't know, life reminds me of Robin Williams, we've
got to laugh the pain away

We don't know what the next man's going through, wish I could s ay it in a plainer way

I said we don't know, life reminds me of Robin Williams, we've
got to laugh the pain away

(Oh) Chris Farley can you hear me?

(Ah) Bernie can you hear me?

We don't know what the next man's going through, wish I could s ay it in a plainer way

I said we don't know, life reminds me of Robin Williams, we've
got to laugh the pain away

We don't know what the next man's going through, wish I could s ay it in a plainer way

I said we don't know, life reminds me of Robin Williams, we've
got to laugh the pain away

Phil Hartman can you hear me? (Oh, yes)

Robin can you hear me?
