

Gone

Celeste Buckingham

Time's up
Gotta wake up
Gotta grow old
And decide what I want

Get out
Gotta leave now
'cause I know how, how to get what I want
Come on, come on, come on
You're lookin' so confused
Come on, come on, come on
Something is bothering you
Come on, come on, come on
I'm gettin' rid of you
Come on, come on, come on

I'm leavin' you here
I'm leavin' you now
And you better know
You're goin' down, down

A face in a crowd
A voice in the dark
You can see
Falling apart
You better run
While you can
While you still call yourself a man
Now I can smile
Now you're gone, gone, gone

Time's up
Gotta wake up
Gotta grow up
And decide what I want

Move on
'cause your girl's gone
And you done wrong
And you're on your own now

Come on, come on, come on
You're lookin' so confused
Come on, come on, come on
Something is bothering you
Come on, come on, come on
I'm gettin' rid of you
Come on, come on, come on

I'm leavin' you here
I'm leavin' you now
And you better know

A face in a crowd
You can see

Falling apart
While you can
While you still call yourself a man
Now I can smile
Now you're gone, gone, gone

You're
On your own
You're all, all alone
And I'm moving on, and on, and on , and on, and on

You're
On your own
You're all, all alone
And now you're gone, you're gone, you're gone, you're gone, you're gone

I'm leavin' you here
I'm leavin' you now
And you better know
You're goin' down, down

A face in a crowd
A voice in the dark
You can see
Falling apart
You better run
While you can
While you still call yourself a man
Now I can smile
'cause now you're gone, gone, gone
Now you're gone, gone, gone
Now you're gone
