

Nothing Ever Can

Celeste Buckingham

Old shoes old clothes
I threw them out
I thought it would sort me out.

But all it ever seems to give me all it ever does is take me back baby take me back.

Well I tried
So hard to forget about you but I can't let this go
If I knew
how to get you out my head then I Wouldn't lose control no
'Cause I've tried everything to replace you but Nothing ever can woah nothing ever can

New start new guy doesn't seem to work
all these feelings only make it worse

And all it ever seems to give me
all it ever does is take me back
baby take me back

So hard to forget about you but I can't let this go
If I knew
How to get you out my head then I
'Cause I've tried everything to replace you but Nothing ever can woah nothing ever can

Well I thought you were the one
But it looks like I was wrong Well it looks like I was wrong yeah wrong yeah and now all that's left are reminders of the things we used to do and how I used to love you yeah So take me back oh baby take me back

Well I tried
So hard to forget about you but I can't let this go
how to get you out my head then I
'Cause I've tried everything to replace you but Nothing ever can woah nothing ever can hmm Nothing ever can hmm nothing ever can
