Long time ago in a place called Cryon was a little town.
The town had been under ice for many years and the people had been suffering for far too long. The oldest and wisest man of the town tested the warriors because some day he would have to send one of them to find out what causes the eternal winter. Up to the mountains were a castle where no one had ever been and the only way in there were through the forest of eternal night.

One day the right man were found. The chosen Warrior wore his best armor and saddled his horse. He took his fire sword and ice shield and left on an unforgettable journey up to the mountains. This tale follows the warrior.
