

Thank You

Celine Dion

Down and out, all alone
Sitting here, sad and ooh
The sun is now going down
It's kinda cold, seeking refuge

I trust a friendly face
Or maybe just a smile
Someone that understands
What I'm going through right now
And just before I...

Lay me down to never wake
I look up and I see you
So with everything I am

Thank you...
Thank you...
Because you didn't have to
Thank you...
Thank you...
With everything I am
Thank you...

For the real sacrifice and the truth
Behind your giving heart
And how you'd never judge or faulted me
Helped me 'cause you wanted to

And for your friendly face
And for just your smiles
Simply understanding that
What I'm going through right now
And just before I...

Lay me down to never wake
I look up and I see you
So with everything I am

Thank you...
Thank you...
Because you didn't have to
Thank you...
Thank you...
With everything I am
Thank you...

'Cause when no one else would care you did
And when no one else was there you were
Now I am so aware
You're a blessing to me
What did I do to deserve...
To deserve you...
There's no words
That could describe
That could describe
How much I...

Thank you...
Thank you...
Because you didn't have to
Thank you...
Thank you...
With everything I am
Thank you...

For everything I am
Thank you... Thank you... Thank you...
Thank you...
With everything I am
Thank you...
