

It Makes No Difference Who We Are

Celldweller

I am still here waiting
I'm anticipating
While they are orchestrating
To grant the wish that I am making

No price too great, no distance too far
If I could wish upon a blackstar
It makes no difference where they are
They'll grant my wish upon a blackstar

We are all here waiting
We're anticipating
While they are orchestrating
To grant the wishes we are making

It makes no difference who we are
It makes no difference who we are

No price too great, no distance too far
If I could wish upon a blackstar
It makes no difference who we are
When we have wished upon a blackstar

When we have wished upon a blackstar
They'll grant our wish upon a blackstar
