

Waiting

Celldweller

I'm still waiting
I'm still waiting

Am I obsess why cannot be for a moment?
You rather let me down than string yourself
Can I request a minute to just think about it?
Hell, that's not asking much when I am still waiting here
I am still waiting here

Nothing's come from this your praying
To forget to make them say they're sorry
This a wonder you're alone and saying
Make it wait make it stay
That's okay, I am still waiting

Am I obsess why cannot be for a moment?
You rather let me down than string yourself
Can I request a minute to just think about it?
Hell, that's not asking much when I am still waiting here
I am still waiting here

Nothing's come from this your praying
To forget to make them say they're sorry
So wonder you're alone and saying
Make it wait make it stay
That's okay, I am still waiting

Am I obsess why cannot be for a moment?
You rather let me down than string yourself
Can I request a minute to just think about it?
Hell, that's not asking much when I am still waiting here
I am still waiting here

I am still waiting
I am still

Am I obsess why cannot be for a moment?
You rather let me down than string yourself
Can I request a minute to just think about it?
Hell, that's not asking much when I am still waiting here
I am still waiting here
I am still waiting here
