i`m sittin` in my room and waitin`for you to come, but sometimes things are getting worse and you are always wrong you reached in every pore, in every nerve and fibre i never tasted love like this before down on this side - and i shouldn't do the same
down on this side - and i shouldn't do the same i was gettin? more than every boy, waitin`for you, so easily i liked the talks, i`ll always remember i never wanted something else
down on this side - and i shouldn't do the same
down on this side - and i shouldn't do the same down on this side - no i shouldn't do the same down on this side - no i shouldn't do the same i complained, you shouldn't do, but you did... down on this side - and i shouldn't do the same
down on this side - and i shouldn't do the same
