

Litany Of Failure

Cephalic Carnage

Why do you believe, one man can police everything? Should I be forced to believe what you say?
Your theoretic views really make me ill;
let me welcome you to the one world corporate states,
They first bring democracy,
using atomic force,
subvert a whole country,
tyrannical raiding are enforced.
Kill it's infrastructure,
siege and prevail,
exhort theocracy,
If Jesus Christ,
came back to life,
you would have him re-crucified,
The soldiers lives you sacrificed, our economy that you've paralyzed It's your litany of failure.
