Ordinary Life

Chad Brock

Shelly's at the kitchen table, cup of coffee, the morning paper When he walks in she's so surprised to see the tears in his eye s He says, "I love you, I'm so sorry but bigger dreams Are waiting for me but I can't do this anymore"

Pay the bills, watch TV, day in day out, the same routine Mow the grass, fix the leak, just to fix it again We go to church, go to work, so picture perfect that it hurts I feel like I'm trapped inside this ordinary life

Shelly's at the kitchen table, crayons, construction paper "Hey mom, look what I drew, it's a picture of me and you" And later when he says his prayers She runs her fingers through his hair, so thankful for every da Y

They pay their bills, watch TV, day in day out, it's all they n eed Mow the grass, fix the leak, just to fix it again They go to church, go to school, everyday it's something new Precious are the days as they go by in their ordinary life

Phone rings, he's calling from the airport It's midnight, he's all alone again He says, "I can't believe how much I've missed And what I wouldn't give"

To pay the bills, watch TV, day in day out, the same routine Mow the grass, fix the leak, just to fix it again Go to church, go to work, I can't tell you how this hurts I miss my son, I miss my wife and my ordinary life
