

Memories

Chainsaw

Memories go up the stairway of my soul
And I never tell them to stop
Fragments of thoughts today have no meaning
Silent pictures of me from the past

I immerse my heart in the wonder of creation
And strain my inner sight
I look for the essence and meaning of existence
That I always leave one step behind

I'm reviving shadows one more time
Only for myself
Dancing echoes in streams falling down
Hearts and thoughts
Thoughts and hearts
I'm reviving shadows one more time

Memories go up the stairway of my soul
Some wait, some don't
Sometimes a dream will fail
When an invisible tear washes me

I feel that yesterday everything was good
And it is always better than today
Human nature is ever unfulfilled
Never still but moving back and forth

I'm reviving shadows one more time
Only for myself
Dancing echoes in streams falling down
Hearts and thoughts
Thoughts and hearts
I'm reviving shadows one more time
