Clouds

Chaka Khan

Clouds Different shapes and sizes Hiding the horizon Clouds In the distance Coming to change my plans All my dreams will melt like sand Clouds The moment that you say good-bye They're gonna rush right to the sky Whoa... Baby, baby, please don't go It's gonna rain It's gonna rain It's gonna rain down tears Of heartaches and fears It's gonna rain It's gonna rain I know for sure 'Cause you don't reach for me no more It's gonna rain It's gonna rain There in the distance Is that number one pain Clouds Thunder is the warning So dark and so alarming Clouds Go away, go away Go, don't take away my sunny days Clouds Leave me be Getting so dark out I just can't see
