

Too Much Love

Chaka Khan

You know our love is driftin'
We have fallen from its grace
We've got to face the situation
Put things in their place

You're still the man
You know just where you stand
But the way you felt for me is gone
There's no more truth to your song

But I've got so much love for you
It's too much love
So much love for you
It's too much love
So much love for you
It's too much love
And I just don't want to throw it away

I've got to sacrifice my feelings
To make you find your own
I think it's time to end it
You might be better off alone

Oh, you're still the man
You know just where you stand
But the way you felt for me is gone
There's no more truth to your song

(There's something you've got to know)
When it's over, it's over
If it's done, then, baby, it's done
But there's nowhere to go
If we leave it all behind

Too much love
Too much love
Too much love
