

I Ain't

Chalee Tennison

I might wear my jeans too tight
I might kick up my heels all night
I may take a notion to flirt
Or say a word I wouldn't say in church
I might have a hidden tattoo
I may show it to you
I might even make you blush
And I will be mysterious

I ain't one to show restraint
I ain't never been no saint
And I hate to ruin your plans
But If you're looking for a one night stand
I ain't

We might be the perfect match
You might be quite a catch
You may know what to say
You could take my breath away
I might let you take me a flick
I might let you give me a kiss
I will let you buy me a drink
And I am smarter than you think

You might
You may
I could
But I ain't
