

Actions Without Love

Chantal Kreviazuk

He ran a marathon, he didn't quite finish
He didn't quite cross the finish line
Actions without love
It never really crossed his mind

He sure got the accent down
And he sure can swoon the lady
And ya know, one day he'll learn
Actions without love, actions without love
The whole bloody language

She pulled out her cheque-book
She asked what the date was
She had to double-check
Actions without love, actions without love
She had to have an audience
Actions without love, actions without love
Love
