Souls

Chantal Kreviazuk

Messages from where I used to grow Twenty thousand frames of mind This is my soul

Relentless where I'm most alone Twenty thousand faceless names This is your show

And, oh, I feel
I am a wandering
A fleeting transient

Soul

All I feel is I am holding on But only for a moment then it's gone

Covenant we will always grow
Our skin will fade transcend beyond
All we've been told

I feel I am the wandering A fleeting transient

Soul

All I feel is I am holding on But only for a moment then it's gone

And oh all I feel is I am holding on But only for a moment then it's gone

Heal me

I'm healed when you see me You see me when you feel me

Souls

All I feel is I am holding on But only for a moment then it's gone

And oh all I feel is I am holding on But only for a moment then it's gone $\ensuremath{\mathsf{S}}$

It's gone

It's gone

It's gone

It's gone

It's gone
