

I Started Crying

Chanté Moore

I, I started to cry
I, I started to cry
I started crying, I started crying
I started crying, I started crying
I, I started to cry

goodnight baby, id rather dream than see where we're going awake (I'd rather be dreaming) so I close my eyes and fantasize about our love and the way it used to be (candlelight, holdin hands, making a lifetime of plans) we let our desires lead the way (my house, your car, and then our child) oh, what a life. I woke up and started to cry

I, I started to cry
I, I started to cry
I started crying, I started crying
I started crying, I started crying
I, I started to cry

tell me, tell me you've got news for me tell me that's not the way it has to be that we can make love like we did before and make war no more

(now you're kissin me) oh and I like that (now you're tellin me) everything is gonna be alright (how our love can be) it can be better than it was before tell me, tell me more, tell me more!

you look me in my eyes and tell me you've changed and tell me I don't ever have to change my name you smiled at me and then we started to fly
oh what a life, I woke up and started to cry

I, I started to cry
I, I started to cry
I started crying, I started crying
I started crying, I started crying
I, I started to cry
