Jesus, I Want You

Chanté Moore

I've been waiting all my life
For that someone
Who would truly satisfy
I thought that if he came he would make everything alright

I was looking for a friend
Looking for a man
I was longing for flesh and more
And suddenly one moment I knew

Jesus I want you to touch me with your Spirit
Jesus I need you to hide me under your wings
More than anyone on Earth
More than anyone on Earth
More than anything on Earth
Jesus I want you

I thought the man who promised me forever
Would hold me than just one night
And I believed nothing could be sweeter
Than being his delight

Maybe you're looking for a friend, looking for a man
Are you longing for flesh and bone
Well I pray one day you'll say

Jesus I want you to touch me with your Spirit
Jesus I need you to hide me under your wings
(So Much) More than anyone on Earth
(So Much) More than anyone on Earth
(So Much) More than anything on Earth
Jesus I want you

Jesus I want youuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuu hoooooo yes
