

Listen To My Song

Chanté Moore

Listen

Throughout the course of your life, many things are undiscovered, finding real love in a woman made for you, so, look at me, but not with your eyes, touch me with more than your hands, imagine the two, my darling, me and you, in the meadows of some distant land, imagine, my love, I know that you can.

Listen to my song (listen to my song),
this melody of love, this melody's for you,
it's a sound of wonder and beauty, my heart beats the rhythm, and it's just for you, for you.

When you're all mine, yes I know, we'll move as one, our bodies keep time, together they grow, making passionate love, destiny found,
I'm feeling your body and I'm loving the sound, of you saying you love me, in me you discover, I'm always your friend and eternally your lover.

Listen to my song (listen to my song), this melody of love, this melody's for you, baby,
Now that you're mine, the love of my life,
I am your woman, your lover, your wife, sent from above, can't believe it's true, baby, close your eyes, (why don't you...)

Listen to my song (listen to my song),
this melody of love, this melody's for you,

We're making passionate love, destiny found,
I'm feeling your body and I'm loving the sound.

Listen to my song (listen to my song), this melody of love, this melody's for you, yes, yes it is,
it's a sound of wonder and beauty,
my heart beats the rhythm, and it's just for you, for you.

Say that you love me, the words I long to hear, in me you discover, I'm always your friend and eternally your lover.
Listen, listen, listen, listen to my song, oh, this melody of love, this melody's for you, you, you, you, you.

Now that you're mine, the love of my life,
I am your woman, your lover, your wife, sent from above, can't believe it's true, baby, close your eyes,
why don't you...

Listen to my song (listen to my song), this melody of love, this melody's for you, yeah, yeah,
it's a sound of wonder and beauty, my heart beats the rhythm, just for you.

Listen to my song (listen to my song), this melody of love, you know this melody's playing just for you, just for you.
