

Love And The Woman

Chanté Moore

I need your love
living inside of me
I need your love
living abundantly
Can't live without your love, no
So keep giving love
Keep on giving me love

Woman and man
Giving what I say that I am
Receiving all you need
Say that you can Share unselfishly your fidelity
Give me what I need, baby

I need your love
living inside of me
I need your love
living abundantly
Can't live without your love, no
So keep giving love
Keep on giving me love

Woman and child
Bouncing baby girl
Can I see your smile
You're so beautiful
You're a part of all that I am
Love from two made one
I'm doing all that I can
I'm giving you all you need

I need your love
living inside of me
I need your love
living abundantly
Can't live without your love, no
So keep giving love
Keep on giving me love

Woman and God
I owe you my life and I love you so much
You gave your life for me
Forever more
No money, no one, nothing
Will ever come before
Thank you for everything
Don't you know, God is...

I need your love
living inside of me
I need your love
living abundantly
Can't live without your love, no
So keep giving love
Keep on giving me love
