

M-A-N

Chanté Moore

When I first saw you I had nothing to compare to How could I recognize the man of a life time
But when you first told me of the secrets deep within me
I had to admit
This is it
If it not had been fortold
The love that would unfold
Cant wait til it overflows
Just look no one even knows
I cant deny it
I'm ready to try
When I look in your eyes
I feel butterflies

Ya ya pa pa
M-a-n m-a-n m-a-n
Man oh man
Man of a life time

You know I had to get near you cause
Your pullin my trigger duck
I'm bout to blow
I think you know your fullfilling my fantasies
I had before you and me
You knew without know
And my mind is blowing
Come take a trip
Come take a dip
I think I knew what eve felt before they slipped
Safe in your arms
Deep in your arms
I've waited so long to sing you this song

Ya ya pa pa
M-a-n m-a-n m-a-n
Man oh man
Man of a life time
