

You're Still the Only One I'll Ever Love

Charley Pride

Time has passed and things have changed
You've gone your way I've gone mine
On the surface it's all over but beneath the surface
You're still on my mind.

'Cause you're still the only one I'll ever love
Forget the hours, forget the miles
Your lips are still the lips I'm dreaming of
And you're still the only one I'll ever love.

All my thoughts of you are good ones
Happy hours that just flew by
You were always someone special
And you'll be my someone special till I die,

'Cause you're still the only one I'll ever love
Treasured mem'ry of treasured time
Your lips are still the lips I'm dreaming of
And you're still the only one I'll ever love
Yes you're still the only one I'll ever love...
