

Babygirl

Charli XCX

If you feeling real sad just look on your wall I'm your pin-up princess yeah you know who to call
You've got a million dollar smile I can live in your dreams
With my angel wings and Fiorucci jeans

Close your eyes and lay back
Think about us, think about love the second we touch
Yeah let your mind just relax
We could play rough, your blood rush, velveteen rush

I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl

Gloss on my lips, pop
Sun in my eyes
Goes the other liquor from inside
Wanna drink a little sip with you
Wanna spend a little bit with you
Open the top pop, drink in my glass
Here come the cops, better drink fast
Wanna drink a little sip with you
Wanna spend a little bit with you

Just close your eyes and lay back
Think about us, think about love the second we fuck
Yeah let your mind just relax
We could play rough, your blood rush, velveteen rush

I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl

I'm hanging all alone
Let me live inside your world
More than a fantasy
Let me be your baby girl

I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl

I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
I'll be your baby girl, your baby girl
