

New York City, King Size Rosewood Bed

Charlie Daniels

Drove back to Birmingham
Let the sunshine on my hair
Going back to Birmingham
Let the sunshine on my hair
Leave all the things that lay beside your
New York City, king sized rosewood bed

You and me, oh mama
You got fire in your eyes
Lightning in your fingertips
Make my fever rise
You a hoochie-coochie woman
You're just the devil in disguise

Going to take all my back luck
Hitch it to the ride in time
Going to take all my back luck
Hitch it to the ride in time
I'll be back in Alabama before the day is done
Going back to Birmingham
Let the sunshine on my hair
Going back to Birmingham
Let the sunshine on my head
Leave all the things that lay beside your
New York City woman, and your
New York City king sized rosewood bed
