

What My Baby Sees in Me

Charlie Daniels

She tries to find a little bit of good in everything that comes her way

She says even a broken clock is right two times a day
And her daddy warned her not to the day she took my name
Said he's a rough and rowdy boy you know he'll never change
Nobody else can see what my baby sees in me

Well I pump the gas and change the tires at the station all day long

She treats me like a millionaire every night when I get home
She calls me her Romeo even though I'm kinda plain She says she learned a long time ago it ain't the whistle that pulls the train
Nobody else can see what my baby sees in me

Nobody else can see but that don't matter much to me
Cause she's the only one I really want to please

Well I don't care much for politics and I probably never will Cause I'm the kind of man that says exactly what I feel
And I don't have all the answers and I'm not always right
But I know I'm never in the dark when she turns out the light
Nobody else can see what my baby sees in me
(guitar)

My baby calls my old pickup truck her cowboy Cadillac
If it holds up we're driving out to Hollywood and back We're gonna cruise down Sunset Boulevard she's always wanted to go

Even though she says out of all the stars I'm the one that stea ls the show

Nobody else can see what my baby sees in me
Nobody else can see what my baby sees in me
