

Is The Joy Worth The Pain

Charlie Louvin

Love is a thing of joy forever if it doesn't change like the weather

Yours can call a sunny smile and make tears fall like rain

And I wonder is the joy worth the pain

Is the joy of loving you worth the pain you put me through

Why I come back for more I can't explain

You make me feel ten feet tall while I'm riding for a fall

So I wonder is the joy worth the pain

I give up my soul to win your love make it if my heart is not enough

It hurts to know I lose more ground than I can ever gain

And I wonder is the joy worth the pain

Is the joy of loving you...
