

Still Loving You

Charlie Louvin

I catch myself still loving you
I walk down these streets every night about this time
Cause you're in my heart and on my mind
I can't face the fact that we are through I catch myself still loving you
I catch myself a crying as I walk along Memories are my company since you've been gone Someone else now holds you like I used to do I catch myself sti ll loving you

I catch myself a crying...
