A Satisfied Man

Charlie Rich

You won't ever see me Running around There's no point in looking For what I've already found

When it comes to loving She's the one There's nothing worth doing That she ain't already done

My good loving woman understands
There's no way of losing a satisfied man

I wouldn't take chances
To try something new
'Cause her kind of loving
Is much too good to lose

I never will leave her loving arms Her love's like a fever There's no other woman that warm

My good loving woman understands
There's no way of losing a satisfied man
My good loving woman understands
There's no way of losing a satisfied man
