

Someone With A Slow Heartbeat

Charlie Straight

capo IV

I think I found someone,
Someone with all the answers,
so I'd better be careful,
About the things I will ask her.

I think I found someone,
Someone I've always dreamed of,
I still can't believe it,
Even when I am with her.

She's drawing something on my hand..

What will happen next nobody knows,
All my dreams have come true and I'm lost.
What will happen next no one can say,
All my dreams are coming true today.

When you find someone,
Someone who'll make you happy,
She can give you the answers,
But don't ask her about me.

Once I found someone,
Someone with a slow heartbeat,
It will never stop beating,
She said that's very unlikely.

What will happen next nobody knows,
All my dreams have come true and I'm lost.
What will happen next no one can say,
All my dreams are coming true today.

What will happen next nobody knows,
All my dreams have come true and I'm lost.
What will happen next no one can say,
All my dreams are coming true today.
