

Something New

Charlie Straight

The ground feels like a mirror,
I am there and you're there too.
The ground feels like a mirror,
made of glass and we're gonna fall through.

Tell me, what you gonna do?
Tell me, what you gonna do?
Tell me, what you gonna do?
Tell me, what you gonna do?

We move on the surface,
when it rains everything's smooth,
No one is alone here,
trees have roots and I have you.

There is nothing we can lose,
there is nothing we can lose,
there is nothing we can lose,
there is nothing we can lose.

You will be me and I,
I will be you.
We'll be a part of something new.
Don't be afraid 'cause love,
love never dies (dies,dies,dies).
When it's too late,
I just close my eyes,
Uhhh, close my eyes.

The ground feels like a mirror and the sun, the sun will shine twice.
Don't look down on me now,
you will see the birds in the sky.

I'll be on the other side,
I'll be on the other side,
I'll be on the other side,
I'll be on the other side.

You will be me and I,
I will be you.
We'll be a part of something new.
Don't be afraid 'cause love,
love never dies (dies,dies,dies).
When it's too late,
I just close my eyes,

I'm you, you know.
I'm you, 'cause you know everything.
I'm you, you know.
I'm you, 'cause you know everything.
