

Tiger In Your Heart

Charlie Straight

The day we met was cold - winter
You said you were the icy queen
I thought I saw a wild tiger
Nobody else could see

There's a tiger in your heart!
In you!
No matter what you say
No matter what you do

In the trees, in the wind
In the tide and the waves
In the salt on my skin
In the moment I wake

In the things that you wear
In the air, in your hair
In the snow and the rain
You'll be there, you'll be there

Oh, there's a tiger

I thought it was a dream, really!
The moment you came and went
Didn't even know, did I?
If I would ever see you again
There's a tiger in your heart!
In you!
No matter what you say
No matter what you do

In the trees, in the wind
In the tide and the waves
In the salt on my skin
In the moment I wake

In the things that you wear
In the air, in your hair
In the snow and the rain
You'll be there, you'll be there

Oh, there's a tiger
Oh, there's a tiger
Oh, tiger!
Oh, come home to me
