

Thru It All

Charlie Wilson

Not one to have a loss for words
What I have to say you've already heard
But I don't think it will hurt to hear it again
Years have passed and your kisses feel Even better now, soothing my heart still
How my passion fills just knowing that you're on your way home again

We've been through it all
A lot of things girl,
You make my heart just skip a beat in so many ways
Only you I call until this day girl
You make my heart just skip a beat let me count the ways

Nothing's perfect we still have our days
But that doesn't mean our love will stray
If anything it takes me right back to you
Wishes answered from the very start
Before hello you have left your mark
One so deep I could not remove even if I wanted to

From your warm embrace to how your kisses taste
The way you look at me, with such sincerity
I feel like every man should feel
I pinch myself to see if it's real

The letters you wrote, even the simple notes
Just you took your time to say what's on your mind
I really couldn't ask for more
Oh yea
