

Finding My Own Way

Charlotte Church

Looking back on memories
Thinking how things used to be
Is it me, or was it simple then?

If I stumble, if I fall
Would you help me up at all?
Take me in, let me come home again

Will some one tell me, how life should be
Understand me but let me be me?

I'm just finding my own ways in my own sweet time
If I'm making a mistake at least it's mine
If I travel down a different road
To the one that you would take
I'm just finding my own way

If you ever see me cry
Don't you worry, I'll be fine
I know you only wants what's best for me

It may be a long way home
But the path I take's my own
I'm not waiting for my destiny

Will someone hold me, when I'm lonely
Understand me, but let me be me?

And if you found me all alone
Would you lend a help hand?
And all I need from you my friend
Is for you to understand

And if you would be my comforter
Someone to love
Then you'd help me find my way
(Help me find my way)
