

Unfaithful

Charlotte Church

Never thought it would end like this
We should have guessed in the beginning
The warning signs that I never should have missed
I took a risk, the room was spinning

You took away the sweetest part
You broke into my fragile heart
When you were unfaithful
But love will never cease to be
The only thing that sets me free
And so I'm picking up the pieces and going home

Now you think I'm the one to blame
I went through pain with our situation
You betray me with every word you say
You hide away now there's complication

You took away the sweetest part
You broke into my fragile heart
When you were unfaithful
But love will never cease to be
The only thing that sets me free
And so I'm picking up the pieces and going home

And now there's no need to lie
I know the truth, just tell me why
Why were you unfaithful
I thought our love would always be
You should have taken care of me
Why were you unfaithful

You took away the sweetest part
You broke into my fragile heart
When you were unfaithful
But love will never cease to be
The only thing that sets me free
And so I'm picking up the pieces and going home

I'm going home
