

How I Could Just Kill A Man

Charlotte Sometimes

Go, get your ribbon box
Go, go get your wounded heart
Seeing spiders, I'm told they never lie
Go, get your brother love
Go, get your losing hand
Seeing fire, I'm told it never burns
I want it all, I pull you back, I want it all

Cry baby, cry baby, cry
Soaking down your
Cry baby, cry baby
You can't understand
How I could just kill a man

No, to your letters love
No, to your unsturdy hands
Sleeping eyes, I'm told they never lie
No, to your key of rust
No, to your raging words
Sleeping tires, I'm told they never drive
I want it all, I pull you back, I want it all

Cry baby, cry baby, cry
Soaking down your
Cry baby, cry baby
You can't understand
How I could just kill a man

And if I wanted to stay
You won't stand in my way
But I'm choosing to leave
With your heart on my sleeve
It feels too good without you

So, cry baby, cry baby, cry
Soaking down your
Cry baby, cry baby
You can't understand
How I could just kill, kill a

Cry baby, cry baby, cry
Soaking down your
Cry baby, cry baby
You can't understand
How I could just kill a man