

This Is Only For Now

Charlotte Sometimes

Here I am gullible for now
Here I am a solid box for now
This is only for now
But I'm not so sure
Seems the box hit the windshield
More than ever before, yeah

Spinning down, spinning down, spinning down
I know that you want to, you know that you want to

Here I am insecure for now
This is only for now
But I'm not so sure
Seems the box hit the windshield
More than ever before, yeah

Spinning down, spinning down, spinning down
I know that you want to, you know that you want to

The smell of the matches
The weight of this floor
The way your hair says
You don't need me anymore
I know that you want to
You know that you want to

Here I am insecure for now
This is only for now
But I'm not so sure
Seems the box hit the windshield
More than ever before, yeah

Spinning down, spinning down, spinning down
