

Some Hearts Get All The Breaks

Charly McClain

Some hearts out there
Lookin' for the perfect mate
Fool around until it's too late
And true love's passed them by

Some hearts never found out what they're after
Never learned to master
They don't even try
And then they wonder why

Some hearts get all the breaks
Some never feel the old heartache
Some hearts never make mistakes
'Cause they got what it takes
Some hearts get all the breaks

Some eyes look forever
But they never see
The one love that was meant to be
They just sit and cry

Some hearts reach out but never hold you
Although they may enfold you
They never really try
And then they wonder why

Some hearts get all the breaks
Some never feel the old heartache
Some hearts never make mistakes
'Cause they got what it takes
Some hearts get all the breaks

Some hearts get all the breaks
Some never feel the old heartache
Some hearts never make mistakes
'Cause they got what it takes
Some hearts get all the breaks
