

The Drift

Charon

Darkness crawls inside tonight.
I'm half the man I used to be as she drifts to me.
Call and I will come to you.
Time has gone, life has gone into cold.
My shadow over you.
I'll take you away. Oh, you can't stay anymore.
They don't know anything.
I was half the shape I used to be now I drift away.
