

PHASES

Chase Atlantic

It's been 24 hours
I'm getting impatient
I'm sorry you're scared
The feeling is shared
I'm sorry I'm dangerous
You say we should talk, it's falling apart
I hate when you say this
I feel like a child
I know it's denial
I'm going through phases

Feel like I'm going insane, I'm going through phases
Pharmacy's rotting my brain, I'm going through phases
Heaven is calling my name, I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases

Swim in the dark
The water is changing
Floating away the fear in my brain
The feeling is fading
You say it's not me
I hate when you say this
I'm falling apart
I'm starting to scar
I'm going through phases

Feel like I'm going insane, I'm going through phases
Pharmacy's rotting my brain, I'm going through phases
Heaven is calling my name, I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases

What's the point of love if it's not real?
Hanging onto me and in your feels
I can't even tell if it's the same to me
I'm falling apart, I know it's denial
I'm going through phases

Feel like I'm going insane, I'm going through phases
Pharmacy's rotting my brain, I'm going through phases
Heaven is calling my name, I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
I'm going through phases
