

Rise Up

Chastain

Rise up to face the battle
Rise up to take on all our lives
Rise up the tide is turning
Rise up to beat the strife

Stand strong against the anger
Stand strong to take on hate
Stand strong the morning after
Stand strong embrace your fate

We will win, the last war
We are the soldiers of change, so stand aside
We are the victors of this life, that we defy

Fight on despite the odds
Fight on from dusk till dawn
Fight on within the shadows
Fight on hard and long

We will win, the last war
We are the soldiers of change, so stand aside
We are the victors of this life, that we defy

Call out your battle's cry
It's for our fallen comrades

I'm standing in the corner
A little past late
Waiting for all the answers
To life's old debate
For in the dark night
An Angel calls my name
Holds out her hand
Tells me "I'm not to blame."
"I'm not to blame!"

We are the soldiers of change, so stand aside
We are the victors of this life, that we defy

Rise up the end is near
Rise up
Rise up the war's not over
Rise Up!
Rise Up!
Rise Up!
Defeat their hell!!
